J. W. G. Cowles, president of the chamber of commerce, who presided at the centennial exercises in Cleveland yesterday, announced a gift to the city of Cleveland by John D. Rockefeller, of a large and valuable tract of land for the extension of the city's park and boulevard system. The property given by Mr. Rockefeller is worth between $600,-000 and $700,000.

The exercises in the armory concluded in time to enable the guests of honor to hastily partake of light refreshments, and soon afterward the greatest and most brilliant arterward the greatest and most brilliant military and civic parade the city has ever seen was formed. It was made up of all the companies of the Ohio National Guard, which are in camp at Cleveland, the United States regulars, who are also in camp; all the uniformed societies of the city, and the Grand Army of the Republic posts of Cleveland. Twenty bands were in line. The procession was witnessed by 200,600 tens of thous visitors from other cities and towns. There was never such a crowd on the streets of the city. The distinguished guests rode in carriages in the van of the parade, so that they could reach the reviewing stand in front of the city hall before the bulk of the procession bad paraged.

Fined for Fast Driving.

Patrick Roy, a colored man who got a situation two days ago as driver of a light express wagon, celebrated his good for-tune yesterday by drinking some beer, and then he drove through the streets as if he thought he was a jockey on a race track. Policeman Kimmel saw him and concluded that he ought to be arrested. But he knew it was impossible for him to overtake him on foot, and so he borrowed a bicycle. On this silent steed the officer overtook the fast driver and locked him up. When Patrick appeared in the Police Court today he declared that he had only taken one glass of beer in the morning, but the officer thought the glass must have been a big one. There was no doubt about the fast driving, and a fine of $10 was imposed on him by Judge Miller.

A Break in the Canal at the Fourteen-Mile

Level.

Two Gangs of Men Are Making the Repairs-Other Happenings of Interest.

A break, the first in a long time, has appeared in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal on what is known as the Big Pool level, sometimes called the fourteen-mile level. Telegrams were immediately sent to Genera! Manager Nicholson, who is now up the canal on his regular tour of inspection, and orders were at once issued for the placing of two large gangs of men on the break, under the superintendency of Messrs. W. T. Hasset and J. T. Richards. Mr. Nicholson went also to the scene of the work, and will personally hurry the repairs along. It is possible that the repairs will consume ten days. Navigation will, in consequence, be interfered with to some extent.

BICYCLISTS FINED.

Most of Them Were Riding Faster Than the Regulations Allow. Four cases of alleged violations of the police regulations relating to bicycles were called in the Police Court, and not a member of the quartet escaped being fined. In one case a colored man named William

Bromley was charged with riding faster than a cable car at a street crossing on Pennsylvania avenue last night. Policeman Estes of the blcycle squad arrested him. He told the court that he saw the wheelman riding his bicycle faster than the law allows and he warned him. But he did not heed the warning, and when he continued to ride fast he arrested him "How long have you been riding a bicycle?" the colored wheelman was asked. "Last night when I was arrested I was

"Judge, I wasn't riding fast. When I had a collision I fell off my wheel, and the policeman arrested me for getting hurt."

"You must learn that you cannot ride faster than the law allows," the court told him, and a fine of $5 was imposed.

William Barnes, who failed to have his lamn trimmed and hurning admitted his lamp trimmed and burning, admitted his neglect and paid a fine of $2.

George Baur, brother of a South Washington policeman, was given a hearing on a charge of fast riding, and the officers said he was riding at the rate of about twelve miles an hour. This the defendant denied. He said he is not a fast rider, and when arrested he was only operating one pedal. Unfortunately, he said, he had no witnesses, and the court fined him the usual amount, $5.

What Secretary Carlisle Said to Ex-Secretary Foster as to His Vote. Mr. Harry H. Smith, former journal clerk of the House of Representatives, has given out a statement concerning the denial made by Secretary Carlisle just prior to the Chicago convention that he had ever told him (Smith) that if the Chicago convention declared for free silver he (Carlisle) would support McKinley. Mr. Smith's card says that in the interview which called forth the denial he was misquoted, he having told the reporter that Mr. Carlisle had made the statement to ex-Secretary of the Treasury Foster, whereas the interview made it appear that Mr. Carlisle had made such a statement to him (Smith). Mr. Carlisle, he says, therefore, had a right to deny having made any such statement to himself. Mr. Smith then reiterates what he told the reporter as to the talk between Secretary Carlisle and ex-Secretary Foster, and incorporates in his card a letter from Mr. Foster dated Fostoria, Ohio, July 13, 1836, in which he says that "something more than a year ago I called upon Secretary Carlisle, and in the coarse of a pleasant conversation, while discussing finances, he stated that if he was compelled to choose between a democratic candidate for President on an unsound money platform and a republican candidate on a sound money platform, he would support the republican candidate."

Ex-Secretary Foster adds that he subsequently repeated this conversation to Mr. Smith at the Arlington Hotel and told him that while Secretary Carlisle did not impose any confidence upon him, he (Foster) preferred not to have the statement made public as coming from him. A Walking Goldbug.
